

M.Ed. Degree in Higher Education

Emphasis on Leadership

Starting January 2011

[applications are still being accepted]

OISE UT

Do you want:

- To develop a broader understanding of the theories and practices that will enhance your effectiveness as an organizational leader, or enable you to become an effective leader?
- To experience the support of a cohort based program along with the flexibility of some electives?
- An opportunity to earn a relevant, research based masters degree, while continuing your professional work?
- The option of selecting one of 2 entry levels (certificate and masters degree)?
- To pursue an innovative, compressed program, that is offered in a part-time format (week-ends, summers) with the opportunity to exit with a certificate, a diploma, or a masters in education degree?

The M.Ed. Degree in Higher Education with emphasis on Leadership is specifically designed for individuals aspiring to be, or currently in, leadership roles in higher education (colleges and universities).

Choice of 2 exit credentials that build on each other:

U of T Certificate or U of T M.Ed. Degree

For information contact Dr. Katharine Janzen at 416-978-1232, katharine.janzen@utoronto.ca or log-on to <http://www.oise.utoronto.ca/depts/tps>